Expertise

Dr. Ulrich Teich advises shareholders, managing directors and executives of German and foreign companies. He is responsible for issues in connection with corporate law, trade law, sales and distribution law, as well as labour law. He particularly focuses on Chinese and other Asian companies as well as entrepreneurs either interested in setting up a subsidiary or in acquiring a company in Germany.

For the past 10 years, he has helped more than 150 companies get established in Germany, by addressing pertinent questions in connection with corporate law and contract law, and as an expert in German immigration law, he provides support to the company's managers, their employees and their respective families in connection with the application for residency and work permits, and with the process of naturalization, if desired .

In addition to this, he has dealt intensively with investment projects of German companies in China and Asia. Currently his major focus is on environmental and energy projects as well as infrastructure issues in Hong Kong, China and Asia, whereby he works in cooperation with specialized engineering consulting companies in Germany as well as in Hong Kong and China.
